

Planting seeds of love.

Write the name of someone on the sprout. On the pot, describe a loving thing you can do for them this week.

Fold here

Whirl Year A Summer Director Guide. wearesparkhouse.org. © 2019 Sparkhouse. All rights reserved. May be reproduced for local use only provided each copy carries this notice.

Fold here

Lectioary 15

YEAR A • JULY 12, 2020

Reader

This long Season after Pentecost is a good time to ponder God through parables.

Fill in the missing words to complete a modern day "Para" Lib story.

There were two good friends living in _____ city _____ who sat together in _____ every day. _____ listened well, but _____ always got distracted trying to _____ paper wads at the back of _____ 's head.

Suddenly, _____ told everyone to put away their _____ and get ready for a pop quiz. The listening friend began to _____ with a smile, while the other friend put their _____ down on their desk and cried. You don't have to be _____ to understand how important it is to listen to Jesus with YOUR _____.

Sundays left in the Season after Pentecost

Jesus told a story about seeds.

Complete each picture below: Seeds on the path were eaten by birds. Seeds on the rocks were burned by the sun. Seeds in the weeds were choked by thorns. Only the seeds in good soil grew to make grain.

Today our church family prays for ...

