

A cross is a symbol of hope.
 Look around your worship space. Draw the different styles of crosses you see.

What's so hopeful about a cross?

The cross reminds us of Jesus' love!

Reader

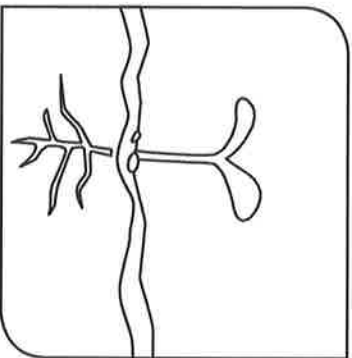

The color green reminds us of the hope and growth that happens in Pentecost.

Have you ever seen something green as a sign of hope?

How did the green olive branch bring hope?

How does a sprouting seed bring hope?

Sundays left in the Season after Pentecost

God cares for us enough to give us hope.

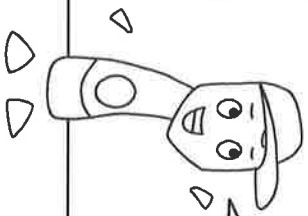

A haiku is a type of poem. Follow the prompts to create your own Haiku of Hope. Don't worry, this type of poem does not need to rhyme.
