Dear Families,

I can hardly believe we have reached the final weeks of the school year and what a blessing this year has been. The children have made wonderful friendships that will last for years to come. The next two weeks will be very busy with lots of exciting things happening in the classroom. This past week was our final week for show-n-tell and daily classroom helper.

Monday is the start of 3 Piggy Opera week. We will be walking to the church each day to practice. Thank you for helping your child practice their songs at home. They are doing a great job learning their parts.
